

Monday 30th March

Today's home learning task:

Today I would like you to write a recount about what you did over the weekend. Remember, a recount is talking or writing about something that has happened. I have put 'Teddy's Day Out' on the website; this is the recount that we learnt together in the autumn term. We have used it a lot to help with recount writing. Your recount should be in time order and have some time words in it, just like Teddy's. You could write about one special thing that you have done or lots of things that happened over the weekend.

Why not turn your recount into a letter and send it to someone you haven't seen for a while so that they know what you have been busy doing and know that you are thinking about them.....

How will I know I have done well?

- ✓ Writing checklist 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.
- ✓✓ Neat writing that is easy to read.
- ✓✓✓ Time words (first, then, after that, finally).

Please complete your work in your home learning book, unless you have written it as a letter to send to somebody special.
