Bird spotted what she thought was a shiny fish in the sea but as she tried to pick up the fish she realised that it was a plastic bottle! she accidentally pulled the dirty old rubbish on to her beak! It was stuck and would not come off. Try as she might she just couldn't get it off. Bird called for help. "Help I'm stuck Beneath the sea a seafaring Turtle saw all of the commotion and tried to help but he got caught in a rotten fishing net. "Oh no I'm stuck too". The next day an adventurer's girl was walking along the beach when she noticed Turtle and Bird washed up on the shore. seeing them injured she rushed to help and managed to free them. From that day on the little girl realised that everyone should take care of the environment before more poor animals come to harm.

The fly buzzed off to a snoozing bear and started laying eggs on the bear.

A moment later the bear woke up itching, then it happened all at once. The baby flies hatched, the bear had such a shock! He ran to the nearest tree to rub his back. "GRRRRRRRRR" roared the bear in itchiness. The elephant was very surprised!

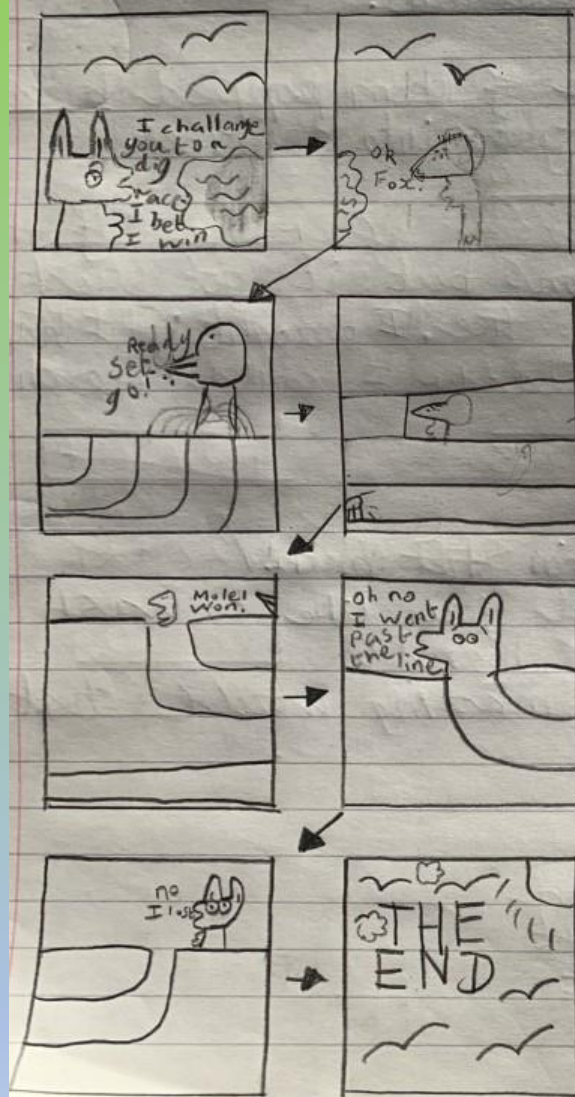

Next the fly came buzzing back sniggering. Unfortunately the fly got stuck in a spider's web! 4 pairs of red beady eyes were staring at him and 2 poisonous fangs dripping with saliva. The spider came creeping towards him, nearer and nearer and wrapped his web around the fly. The fly wished that he hadn't shown off to the elephant but it was too late. He just got devoured by the spider!

The elephant and the bee

By Isabelle

One day an elephant came across a bee stuck in a web. The elephant said to the bee, "I shall get you out of that web", so he did. The bee thanked the elephant and said to him, "one day I shall do something good for you" and he flew off. As the elephant walked home he muttered to himself, "A tiny bee can't do something for an elephant like me". In the morning the bee was out flying when he saw the elephant with some poachers. The bee flew straight at the poachers and stung them lots so they ran away. The bee went up to the elephant and asked him what he had to say, "Well", said the elephant, "I guess small things can do big things!"
