Activities

Line one and two: Practise reading some of the words in the grid as often as you can, try to do some phonics every day.

If you can, go to the 'Phonics Play' website and play Obb and Bob, or some of the other games. Choose this weeks sounds to practise. (Access to this excellent website is currently offered free)

Coronavirus Update

In response to the ongoing situation, we have decided to make PhonicsPlay free to use during this period. Children can use the site at home without their parents needing to subscribe. To access our resources all you need to do is log on using the following details.

Username: march20

Password: home

Our aim to ensure that existing subscribers aren't disadvantaged and will seek to make sure that after the school closures are over and the site returns to normal, that existing subscribers have additional time added to their subscription. If you haven't already discovered www.phonicsplaycomics.co.uk you may also find these free decodable comics useful at a time when you can't physically exchange your children's decodable reading books.

We wish you good health and all the very best at this stressful time.

Activities

Line Three:

If you can, go to the 'Phonics Play' website and look in Phase 5 for this game.

(Access to this excellent website is currently offered free)

Make a list of words with the different spellings for long o (ow, o-e, oe, oa). Use some of your words to write sentences, don't forget the writing checklist.
