Lighthouse Poems

The Luminous house.

The lighthouse towering above the calm Salty Seas.

The lighthouse with its luminous rotating
~~But~~ energy beams.

Like a sun beam through the clouds

The lighthouse beacon like a moon with its moon beam.

Helping ships navigate away from the islands to the coast, away from the ~~big~~ dangers instead of ominous.

They see the dark silhouette in the distance.

The lighthouse

Its owner the keeper working it through stormy seas and calm oceans

The lighthouse

Like a land mark to guide boats and planes to safety as they cruise onwards away from the lighthouse.

Lighthouse.

Like an ominous house,
Opening its luminous eye,
facing weather changes
and high tides.

Towering over the stormy seas, it looms over the foaming water like a protector of the rock.

A beacon of light shining bright all through the night.
