

Modal Verbs

These are modal verbs:

would could might should can will shall may must

They have to be placed alongside another verb to make sense.

Try and write a paragraph of a story, which includes all the modal verbs. You are going to have to be creative! Remember to use a variety of sentence structures and interesting vocabulary. Once you have completed the writing, underline in a coloured pencil all the modal verbs and the other verbs they are working with.

