

L.O. To use Modal Verbs

Modal verbs can be used to show things that we will do, or could do – the likelihood of them occurring.

Use each modal once to finish off these when /if causes. Remember to punctuate them correctly too. Underline the modal used or write it in a different colour to make it stand out.

If I become Prime Minister,

If I become a millionaire,

When I am old enough to do a job,

If I get shipwrecked on a desert island,

If I become famous,

When I move into my own house,

When I can go on holiday by myself,

When I can choose a pet of my own,

Whenever I am hungry,

If it rains tomorrow,
