

Comparatives and Superlatives

Do these words need an 'er' or 'est' ending? Do they need 'more' or 'most' in front of them instead?

Remember though that sometimes the adjective changes completely e.g. good, better, best

Write out the full sentence in your book with the correct word (either comparative or superlative from the adjective listed).

1. John's room is much (big) than mine.
2. Jenny is much (fast) than Susan.
3. I have a (good) understanding of algebra than my brother.
4. We had a (brilliant) time at the park.
5. Next week, I will try to go on a (long) bike ride.
6. Caroline is the (smart) girl I know.
7. The film was the (bad) I had ever seen.
8. I think I am the (strong) child in the class.
9. It's (dark) at 10 p.m. than at 5p.m but at midnight it is (dark).
10. You need to be (careful) when you do that next time.